G. W. Gill Esq^r
Dear Sir

Yours of the 7th inst for which I thank you.

I certainly would not on any account disturb the tenents for a year, but if your client is willing to give the sum of £600, I shall certainly not sell it less, he can have it.

You know as well as I do, the value of property has gone down in Portmahomack, more so than many places, but, if this proposed light railway goes on, I firmly believe the Port will be a thriving place.

Awaiting your reply

Yours faithfully
E. B. Noble
